Meaningful Activities

This year, we have decided to leave our world travels and instead travel through the decades. We looked at the decades in which our residents were born, and with our oldest resident being 101 years old, we chose to start in the decade she was born - the 1920s. On the last Thursday of January, we stepped into the 1920s with flapper dresses and accessories. Our residents enjoyed trying on costume jewellery and had lots of fun singing and dancing along with the fabulous Rebekah Austin, who
